MAGELLAN HILL NAMES CHRISTINE PARKER TO ADVISORY BOARD

Haddonfield Company Inducts South Jersey Business Leader for New Insights

Haddonfield, NJ – Magellan Hill announced the appointment of Christine Parker, President of Parker & Partners Marketing Resources, L.L.C., to the company’s Advisory Board. The Advisory Board is a panel of distinguished experts drawn from Magellan’s stakeholder communities, and it plays a key role in advising the company on emerging trends, opportunities for growth, program and strategy development.

“Christine has been a strong contributor to the growth of many organizations in the southern New Jersey region through the efforts of her own company. We are confident that her business sense and vision will be positive assets to our Advisory Board and the continued growth of Magellan Hill,” said Bradford M. Bono, President and CEO of Magellan Hill.

ABOUT CHRISTINE PARKER

Christine Parker is the president of Parker & Partners Marketing Resources, located just outside Atlantic City, NJ. Parker & Partners is a full-service marketing and advertising agency that specializes in design, branding, public relations, strategic marketing and event planning. In its 20-plus years, the agency has managed clients in a variety of industry categories, including utilities, healthcare, education, banking and hospitality among others, with much dedication and success.

After earning her degree from Becker College, Chris began her career in corporate sales and marketing, working with the Tandy Corporation and later with the financial division of Merrill Lynch. In addition to her current business endeavors, Chris is a Board Member for Cape May County Chamber of Commerce, Ambassador for Atlantic County Chamber of Commerce, Stockton College Annual Scholarship Benefit Committee Member, Leadership Team Member for eWomenNetwork and is also on the Board of Directors for the Ronald McDonald House of Southern New Jersey.

“It’s an honor to be a part of Magellan Hill,” said Parker. “The company’s progressive way of doing business is outstanding in that they provide telecommunications services for substantially less than other carriers while contributing greatly to worthy charitable organizations through their U Care Now division. I look forward to dedicating my time and expertise in an effort to introduce Magellan Hill’s services to a new market of companies.”
